ARTIST'S STATEMENT

To bring home the McDonald's experience we created beautiful McDelivery paper bags. Although simple, these paper bags once opened up turned into lovely tray mats. Each paper bag on opening up revealed a different design, allowing you to enjoy your favourite McDonald's food on an intricate tray mat. From McCheese to Happy Meals and from the McVeggie to

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

Inspired by the works of Switzerland sculptor Markus Raetz we decided to erase a solid boundary between Eastern and Western typography. For this project we've tried a lot of innovative media that we never used before. Everything started in MAYA software (very big thanks to Sanzhar Murzin), later on we continued with 3D

“嘻嘻哈哈” HIPHOPHOP NEW YEARZHAN WEI*GUILIN, CHINA*PORTFOLIO*ARTIST'S STATEMENT

There is a saying that the sky is opposite the earth; the rain is opposite the wind. As the firework blows, a new year is coming. During the Chinese lunar New Year, you can see some GRAFFITI which is mixed with Hip hop and Chinese traditional cultures. The writer would like to take everyone by surprise to put the stickers on somewhere. The stickers are

MUSEUM FOR TRIBAL HERITAGE	While developing the logotype for the museum for tribal heritage, I thought of developing a type face based on its visual language which can be used for way finding system of the museum since it also has to be bilingual. My first step towards development of a type face was to understand the proportions of all alphabets, started drawing devanagri characters.	KSHITIJ TEMBE MUMBAI, INDIA PORTFOLIO

JODHPUR WEDDING	This wedding card was designed for a young bride who wanted the card to be not just an invitation to the wedding, but to the destination where it was being held - Jodhpur, Rajasthan. We laser cut the map of Jodhpur out of the envelope to give a hint of the illustrations within. All the illustrations were created from the designs on the Brides wedding Lehenga.
